   Mr. Valentini explained that the district had received a letter from the Town of Sheffield specifically related to the fire suppression system protecting the auditorium stage at the Mt. Everett Regional School, which during routine boiler room work, was found to be not functioning. At the request of the Building, Grounds and Technology Subcommittee Mr. Valentini drafted a letter to the five towns addressing the concerns (Copies of letters on file with these minutes).

   The issues with the fire suppression system were brought to the attention of RDK Engineers, the architectural/engineering/mechanical team currently working on the boiler project. The firm responded with a letter describing the existing system, the work on the system that has been completed as part of the recent Boiler Replacement Project as well as a description of the current condition of the system.

   Mr. Valentini asked if the work being done on the boilers caused the problem. The problem was discovered as part of the construction project and that a permanent solution in under plan. The impairment plan currently puts in place an adequate water supply for the TACPAC.
5. Updates/Presentations:

   A. Global Education – this item has been tabled to the next meeting.

   B. Food Services Program: Mr. Jeremy Wells, Director introduced himself to the school committee. He stated that he has made a few changes to the food service program since he started. He has combined food safety and cost. By eliminating the salad bar there is less waste. He now uses portion cups and offers 6 or 7 varieties of vegetables and fruit offered daily.

   Because of peanut allergies, the students are offered a choice of “Uncrustables” as a peanut butter and jelly sandwich substitute. These sandwiches are prepacked and so there is less chance of cross contamination.

   Ms. Lartigue expressed her concern regarding the ingredients in the Uncrustables and the nutritional value of the sandwich. She would rather not see this as an option. She asked if it were possible to get a better quality peanut butter and jelly sandwich that is safe. Mr. Wells responded that he could discontinue selling the Uncrustables and peanut butter and jelly sandwiches altogether. The alternate to peanut butter is Sunflower butter which the students do not eat.

   Ms. Lartigue then stated that we need to make the best possible food choices for our students within our budget. Ms. Silvers voiced her concerns about the number of students who rely on our meal benefits and if we eliminate the peanut butter and jelly sandwiches would they be getting the required amount of protein in their diet. Currently are district is at 33% free and reduced. Mr. Wells confirmed that the entrees served at school need to meet the requirements set by the state. There is a choice of up to 5 entrees offered at each meal.

   Ms. Lartigue suggested that this might be a discussion to be held at a Food Subcommittee meeting.

   Mr. Wells then informed the committee that the number of meals served has increased from last year. He is also looking at a grant for fruits and vegetables of $2500. Performance based funding will generate an extra 6 cents per meal.

   There was a discussion on providing snacks for the students who stay for after school programs, sports, homework, etc. Mr. Wells will look into the possibility of a vending machine.

   The concern of students eating breakfast was also brought up. Currently the students arrive at 7:50 a.m. and some of them do not have enough time to get a breakfast. Ms. Silvers suggested applying to the Eagle Fund for a grant for next year. Ms. Marinelli mentioned that some schools do a grab and go breakfast.

   Mr. Valentini had to leave the meeting at 7:31 p.m.

   The problem of students charging lunches was also discussed. Currently the students are allowed to charge up to 5 meals. Mr. Wells then calls home as well as sending a notice via email that the student owes for meals. Mr. Stewart asked how the money is deposited in the students’ accounts. Mr. Wells replied that this can be done online or check. Ms. Rundle suggested contacting parents to encourage them to use Myschoolbucks. Parents would get the warning notice, with the options for payments listed. Ms. Lartigue commented that part of the talk with parents falling into delinquency is reminding them that free and reduced applications are always available to complete. Mr. Wells responded that he does correspond with parents letting them know that the applications are always available and if payment plans need to be established.
